ERC taking sensitisation campaign to Regions Five and Six

The Ethnic Relations Commission (ERC) will meet on Saturday with multiple stakeholders to discuss The Representation of the People Act, The Racial Hostility Act and the ERC's Monitoring Exercise. The discussion takes place at Little Rock Suites in New Amsterdam at 08:30 hours.

Among those invite to participate are representative of religious organizations, youth and women's groups, commanding officers of all police stations and out-posts in the Regions, regional executives including the Mayors of the three municipalities in the area, the private sector and key citizens in the regions.

A similar discussion was held in Georgetown earlier this week which brought together representatives of Regions Three, Four and Seven.

A similar discussion is scheduled for Region Two.

Meanwhile, while in Region Six, the ERC will also be meeting with residents of Tain and nearby villages for a conflict resolution workshop at Tain Campus on Saturday at 16:00 hours. This workshop is aimed at improving relations and building peace within communities.
